DESCRIPTION

This picturesque country house is surrounded by nature, situated in an absolutely peaceful, private location, on a romantic forest plot of 25'000m². The finca is located within walking distance to the popular mountain village of Alaró and the island's capital Palma can be reached in 30 minutes by car. The living space is distributed on one level, divided into 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. There is a mezzanine that can be used as a third bedroom. Outside, the property offers a beautiful plot with its own forest, various terraces, a BBQ area and a pool. The finca is completely self-sufficient, as it has solar panels, a generator and a large water tank. A secluded retreat for nature lovers and individualists, who are looking for peace and privacy, but do not want to be cut off from the outside world.
